One project presented to the convention was that of establishing a watermelon pool, with donations from growers, in the off season period. The suggestion received warm approval and will be worked on by Association committees.

By position, last week, and the Glades exhibit proved to be one of the banner ones of the collection. Thousands of interested people gathered around the display to gain information of our great farming area and the produce raised in the Glades.

Miami people are more far than some of the other east coast cities so far as obtaining fresh vegetables are concerned, for hundreds of trucks haul Everglades grown produce into that market each week.

With northern tourists getting a taste and hankering for our "greens" increased demands should come from the north.

CLINIC TODAY

Representative Elliott and Bollinger," according to Chairman Frazier.

President A. E. Kirchman of RDB stated that he not only had requests from our legislative delegation for a clinic similar to the one held two years ago but the Board of Directors feel the people should have an opportunity to know about bills which may become a law and directly affect the county or their local area without the necessity of spending time and money going to the State Capitol during the hectic six-day session when our overworked delegation can devote only a minimum of time and thought to any one proposed law.

FRIENDS OF FLOOD

In the Senate, John Beachman, has been made chairman of the Flood Conservation committee, and Representative B. Elliott, chairman of a like committee in the House. These two men are bolstered by John Bollinger, our second representative, who is a strong supporter of the plan.

Our County Commissioners are backing the project wholeheartedly, and then in addition we have the RDB and the Everglades Drainage District forces with like support.

In discussion of tax resources for the big project, the County Commissioners, Senator Beachman, again endorsed the plan for placing a tax on fuel oil and kerosene, claiming that income from that source would be sufficient to meet the state demands on the $208,000,000.00 project. This suggestion is being studied and will likely be presented to the Legislature next month, as a possible source of revenue.

HERE'S AN Idea WORTH TALKING OVER

more profitable?

We're not promising the moon, but we'd like to see if we can help you make more money, or save work. We do know that on a good many farms we've been able to make recommendations that worked out profitably.

At least, it's an idea worth talking over. We are making farm visits all the time and hope to reach you soon. However, we invite you not to wait but drop in anytime. You'll find that we are really interested in discussing your problems and helping all we can.

We do know that the future of the farmer depends greatly on the efficiency of all farm operations. We know something about this subject. That's why we think it will pay you, as well as us, to "get better acquainted."

LET US OVERHAUL YOUR TRACTOR

Between now and spring have us put your Ford Tractor in first class condition, while we have more time when you are in a special situation. You can depend on our Ford Tractor trained mechanics and service Ford Tractor parts. Avoid delays for repairs in your rush season. Please... we'll pick up your tractor.

PRESIDENT

Port Mayaca along the proposed government dike which will circle the Glades muck lands around to Moore Haven.

The trip back to Belle Glade was across the Lake with a close view of Kitta Island as well as Torry and Kraemer.

A two-hour inspection trip gave the Doctor a general knowledge of the activities of the Everglades Station.

The Rotary meeting, where the RotaryAnn had prepared a 100 percent Glades dinner—except the bread, which came from St. Pierce—Roscoe Braddock, Master of Ceremonies took charge from President Ralph Freeman. The Belle Glade High School Band furnished music during the dinner under the leadership of Director Payne.

Tom Watson, Jr., introduced Dr. Miller for the address, which was well received and left the audience with a new found admiration for our university under the Doctor's leadership.

A significant theory of Dr. Miller's is that "money provided for education, and the several Experiment Stations, is not rightly an expense—this is an investment in the progressive economy of the State." Dr. Miller proved his point to the satisfaction of his audience by showing that education of our youth enables him to make more than $500 per year while the uneducated is making $100. He pointed out also that work at the experiment stations enables the farmer to increase his income. These increased incomes bring in more in the form of taxes to the State, thus returning the investment with interest.

Doctor Miller pointed out that more than five millions have been cut from the University budget, which itself is low because of the anticipated increase in enrollment for 1949 to 13,000 students from the present enrollment of approximately 10,000. The present enrollment of 10,000 was the basis of the present budget which was prepared sometime ago.

"If we want education to continue—and we certainly do—and to progress with the growth of the State, we must see that these budgets are adjusted some way," says Dr. Miller.

Dr. Miller demonstrated real interest in the particular problems of the cattle industry to the extent of visiting pastures where the new disease, the name and cause of which is not yet known.

Everyone who had occasion to know the Doctor feels that the Glades and the entire state is fortunate in having a man of his caliber heading our University.

Cornell School of Agriculture largely the product of Dr. Miller's 20 years of association with the New York educational system and it is outstanding throughout the world.

A native Virginian, of The Valley, Dr. Miller seems to be proud to be working again with a southern institution.

Commercial Fishing A Great Asset To Florida Culture

Florida waters have yielded a total commercial fish catch of 2,710,255,000 pounds of fish of all kinds and 2,634,496 gallons of shell fish during the past ten years, the research and industrial division of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce states in its weekly business review.

Last year's catches in two types of fish, shrimp and non-food fish, topped all previous years. In 1939 the shrimp catch was a little over six million pounds and has increased steadily, with slight variations in the war years, to 16,973,397 pounds in 1948. The non-food fish haul, principally menhaden (gorey) of 1939 was 78,355,997 pounds. This catch has varied from a low of 33 millions to a high of 227 millions pounds since 1939 and last year jumped to 863,400,465 pounds.

The total food fish catch, excepting shell fish, was $3,881,112 pounds in 1939 and has held close to the hundred million mark since then. In 1943 this catch was 110,933,824 pounds.

The only classification of fish showing a decrease during the ten year period was shell fish. Last year 126,756 gallons of all types of shell fish were taken from Florida waters, 14 per cent of the 1939 volume.

"These tabulations do not cover sports fishing or the pole and line fish catch sold directly to retailers."

Child Labor Work In Florida Is On Improved Basis

Miss Mary E. Skinner, labor economist with the Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., says:

"Child labor conditions in the state are steadily improving with the exception of some violations at present in sections where the harvesting of vegetables is in progress, Hopkins reported."

Work certificates for minors under 16 are required in agricultural and farm work if this work is performed when the public schools are in session. Farm work after school hours does not come under certificate ruling of the Florida Child Labor Law.

Passed over Governor's veto.
Filed in the Office Secretary of State, June 5, 1939.

City Officials names are beginning to appear quite frequently on the Elks records, find Municipal Judge Jack Johnson, Solicitor, Chief Charles Goodfetti, City Clerk Dutch Wallis, Commissioners Fred Decker, Harlan, and soon that of Mayor Junius Harris. Other law enforcers are Ray A. Whitlock, Sheriff, and George Gibbs.

That good young golden roasting ears now in the market, crushed my store teeth into a cob of it the past week, since I properly seasoned to taste, did taste swell.

In conversation with a prominent buyer and farmer of vegetables from South Bay he made the remark: "Glades farmers have been favored this season, in three ways, the Texas and California freeze out the fact that it has been a warm open winter in the north, setting up salad appetites rather than for the hardier meats, and that we have ready sale at promotional prices for our produce. When we check up at the end of the season, I feel most every one will be well satisfied with the turn, and that the spring record of 1948, will long be discussed and will become one for the record book. The quality of our produce has never been better, which has added in re-orders from the commercial distributors of the northern markets, many of them new customers. Good goods always count."

Am willing to wager that those 50 or more out state rotarians who were in attendance at the Inter-city convalesce at the Country club, will not soon forget their visit to Belle Glade. How they did seem to enjoy that fine food, as did all others in attendance and appreciative of that basket of Glades raised vegetables which were the gifts of the Rotarians. The snappy address given by President Miller of the University of Florida, was one that all will remember.

The big show will come in from Fort Myers, early Saturday morning, and will spread canvas at the school ground property on West Lake Road, and both tents will be up in time for the afternoon shows. The show puts on no parade.

From Belle Glade the show goes to Key West, Homestead and regular monthly board meeting. Mr. Huffy has been a resident of the resort for the past ten years and is a director of the American Trust Co., of Washington, D. C., and the Equity

Fort Lauderdale on its swing back northward.

The program to be presented in the three ring circus will be of a type common to large and small circuses, and report has it that this particular show has a bunch of fine artists for the ring and air acrobats.

The menagerie show has both animal and specialty freak displays. One attraction is the elephant "Shirley Temple" which the children of the nation purchased with dime donations, to present to the young film star. This animal was obtained by the Rogers circus by a personal gift of the California owner.

The Lions club is sponsoring this show here, and from advertisement it is known before ten o'clock, Friday night, will come most of the local lake for the swimming pool project. The big tent top will hold a capacity of 2500 people without crowding. The personnel of the show numbers 250 persons.

Pahokee Water Plant Expansion Project Has Been Completed

For the past year the Pahokee City Commission has been watching the installation work of an extended water system and the erection of a large storage tank, and the placement of new fixtures for the power plant and system. The past week the job was accepted from Contractor Ivy J. Smith, of Jacksonville and he was given his last estimate of $25,000. The original waterworks plant was the first one that was erected in the states under CWA grant, but this was soon outgrown, and extensions and new equipment became imperative, so that the present expansions were provided.

Ben Morgan State Game Commissioner Dies in Washington

Ben Morgan, who came from Alabama two years ago to become Game Commissioner for the State Game and Fresh Water Commission, died from a heart attack in Washington hotel, on March 10th. He was in that city to attend a convention of Game Commissioners. He retired for the night and was found dead in his bed the next morning.

Morgan in his brief stay as Administrative head of the Florida department, had proven an efficient man, and had built up his department into a most powerful and efficient body of game and conservation officers.

Three Groups Are Holding Tent Meetings in Belle Glade

Belle Glade people, church and non-church attending, are going to have plenty of opportunity in attending religious tent meetings the coming month, as three tent attractions will be holding services.

The Community Bible Center, is pitched on North Main street, for a period of 30 days, with J. A. Cross, as the speaker. The series is presented by the Seventh Day Adventist church, a great missionary group. The series of sessions will open on March 20th. The addresses will be along philosophical lines rather than the religious revival themes.

A second white tent will be located on the Toonerville road, where Rev. Bauman, will hold regular Sunday and mid-week services.

For the colored people of the town, Bishop J. L. Phelmore will conduct a 30 day revival services in his tent to be located on the Rutledge property on West Ave. E. Bishop Phelmore is a high leader in his denomination, looks and acts the part, and is noted for his powerful discourses.

The Nazarene Church is also holding revival services at the Scout Hut in Paradise Park. Each evening at 8 o'clock.

To Be Presented Trophies

The winning boy and girl in the recent King and Queen contest, James Jasper, Grade 5-A, and Emma Jean Hicks, Grade 2-B, will be presented loving trophies in the very near future. All classes that participated in this effort which netted enough funds to equip our Rhythm Band and Safety Patrol will be entertained at a lawn party when the trophies are awarded. Pictures will be made of the "King" and "Queen," and these pictures will be placed in the library along with pictures of other successful contestants.

Assembly Programs

The Friday afternoon assembly programs continue to live up to the high standards set up at the beginning of the term. With one or two exceptions, all programs have been intellectual as well as entertaining. Two weeks ago the Safety Patrol presented "Dr. I. Q." during assembly. This imitation of the famous radio program was carried out similar to the real program. Pupils who were fortunate in knowing the correct answers were given such useful articles as socks, neckties, handkerchiefs, tooth paste and brushes, pencils etc. Last Friday, in keeping with the season of the year, the Dramatic Club presented "The Lazy March Here".

News of Everglades

Vocational High School

The boys and girls' basketball teams of Everglades Vocational High School attended the annual District Basketball Tournament which convened at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, on Friday and Saturday, March 4 and 5. In the first game which the boys played, they defeated Gifford High School. Saturday, they defeated Carver High School of Miami. After having won those games, they played Dillard High School of Fort Lauderdale in order to determine which team would play the winner of the Industrial Dursey High game for the boys' district championship. The "Bobcats" fought a hard battle, finally being defeated. Later, they played Dursey High of Miami for the consolation and were defeated in this game also. The "Bobcats" fought hard, but lost in the struggle.

The girls played their game with Oklawaha, defeating that team by a large margin after which they played Fort Pierce and also defeated that girls' team. Then the girls' team of Everglades Vocational High School played Fort Lauderdale's girls for the Championship, thus defeating that team. After the finals, our girls were declared the girls' championship team of the fifth district. Both teams from Everglades Vocational High won many honors for their school.

All district captain, Daisy Bell Williams; All district captain, Ollie Davis; All district high point scorer, Ida Jordan; All district high point scorer, (second), Daniel White; All district forward, Daisy Bell Williams; All district forward, Ida Jordan; All district forward, Coach R. H. Stone. Principal M.

Office Davis; All district guard, Eugene Jones.

Aside from these honors, both teams received the best sportsmanship awards. Much luck to these boys and girls and may they receive many more trophies and ribbons.

In concluding the basketball season, the girls' team will participate in the State Tournament at Florida A. and M. College on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 17, 18, 19.

Ruby and cooperation of the ladies made the purchase of the stove possible. Louise and O. G. McWhorter played some fine golf Sunday with Louise having a 42 and two birds.

Joe Kahn of Pahokee came over Sunday with several friends along as his guests. The Tom Watsons had guests from Tampa for the weekend and brought them out to the Club.

Marion Clause attended the Ft. Pierce tournament with Johnnie Strickland and Phil Mills.

Edith and Doc Vanlandingham, Bob and I went up to Ft. Pierce for the weekend and it was certainly "old home week" for Little Doc, as that town is his old stomping ground.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy Bair also went to Ft. Pierce for the Elks tournament on Sunday.

Don't forget pot luck Sunday night.

THEY HELP THOSE WHO HELP THE PUBLIC

Certified Public Accountants, in the discharge of their professional responsibilities to the public, stand at all times ready to serve hospitals, churches and all other community organizations which are dedicated to public welfare and deserve a major portion of their operating funds by public subscriptions.

Certified Public Accountants are often able to point out financial pitfalls and suggest remedial action that can mean the difference between the continuation of valuable public services or their abrupt termination. Financial reports prepared by CPAs give the contributing public an intelligible story of the manner in which funds are derived and disbursed.

Hence, the CPA's professional skill and experience make him an important factor in the maintenance of essential community services.

Mary Eleanor Kidder
Is Chimes Ringing

Reprint from Tampa Tribune
(By Rose Allegato)

In the gray dawn or the twilight of dusk, the familiar figures of the "girls behind the bells" can be seen rushing around the Florida Southern College campus.

Mary Eleanor Kidder and Lois Meinicke have become just as well known as the chapel chimes which toll the time of day, for these lively girls perform their duty, come what may.

The chimes signify class changes. In the midst of a discussion of Alexander the Great, or an explanation of how to balance a chemistry formula, the bells will ring out a hymn, which floats over the campus and tells the students to pick up their books and depart for another class.

Not quite as welcome is the hymn that sounds at 6:30 A.M. to announce to coeds that they must crawl out of their beds and start another day.

But the girls who ring the bells have their problems also. Rising at the heart-breaking hour of 6:30 A.M. still clad in pajamas, they wrap their raincoats around them and sleepily make their way to the chapel. The girls consider this their worst "hardship" and especially on Sunday, when, without classes to attend, they could sleep a few hours more. However, Sunday is still considered a holiday. On this day they do not have to ring the first bells until 7:30 A.M.

Only one girl is needed to play the chimes at one time, therefore Mary Eleanor and Lois have worked out a schedule, taking turns.

Mary Eleanor, a freshman, who comes from Belle Glade, is majoring in religion and is attending college on a scholarship. Lois is a junior and is majoring in art and elementary education. She has from Mount Dora. This is the first year either of the girls has rung the bells.

Lois and Mary Eleanor are known and teased by all their fellow students, but they don't mind and admit it's fun. Often on their way to the chapel they will meet some one and begin chatting. Before they realize it, they have about two minutes in which to make a wild dash across the campus.

The girls themselves choose the hymns or songs to be played with the exception of one "must". The Bells of St. Mary's is traditional at chapel time. In the evening, to initiate the study hour, they will play soft, dreamy tunes such as Moonlight Becomes You.

The girls have missed only one morning, when Mary Eleanor, who was "on duty" returned from tour at 3 A.M. Needless to say, the chimes were silent, for once.

Vacancies Announced In Navy Electronics

The Navy has vacancies for qualified men to enter the Navy electronics technicians school. It was announced here today by CPO Thomas Glaze, local Recruiter.

To qualify, applicant must be between the ages of 17 and a high-school graduate. He must make a high mark on the regular applicants qualification test and then pass an aptitude test for electronics.

Here is a wonderful opportunity for those that are chosen. This course would cost about $5,000.00 in a civilian institution. Selected men will be sent to the Navy Training Station in San Diego, California, for the routine recruit training, then to the Navy school of electronics for 42 weeks training. Those selected for aviation electronics will receive an additional weeks training.

State Commission Names New Chief Game Warden

The State Game and Fresh Water Commission has named a new executive commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ben O. Morgan. The choice of the commission is Coleman Newman, who has been connected with the Board as wildlife biologist, and as first assistant to Morgan, in charge of the deer and wild turkey, and hunting ground acquisition department.

Newman for many years prior to coming to Florida, was connected with the Texas state game commission. Newman states that he will follow pretty much the administrative plans as had been formulated by Morgan.

Game Department Possesses New Fish Movement Tank

A new type, self-aerating tank truck designed to transport adult fish from one of Florida to the other, with practically no mortality has been purchased by the State Game and Fresh Water Commission.

Chief Fisheries Biologist John F. Dequine said today the truck, containing 36 individual stainless steel tanks, is equipped with a continuous circulating water system and is insulated to insure constant temperature in each compartment.

The new $8,000 distribution unit will transport over 360 pounds of fish on a three-day journey in hot weather with no deaths enroute. Dequine said, The death rate was extremely high in the old fish tank truck which had a 200 pounds maximum carrying capacity and an eight-hour travel time limit.

Essentially the new equipment will be used in fish rescue work—transferring game fish from isolate pot-holes to fresh water lakes and streams in all parts of the state. The truck will be based at Wewahatcha.

Garrett and Davis Secure New Wrecker
